ALLIES & ORGANIZATIONS

Garriden has always been a talented singer, and she's always had a penchant for acquiring things that don't belong to her. The fame she found on stage as a performer allowed her to access many things (often expensive and rare) that she might not have otherwise been able to get close to. During one of her heists she unfortunately ran afoul of the Zhentarim noble that owned the building. Now, Garriden is on the run.

She has taught herself to use disguise kits and can easily slide and out of new identities. In fact, "Garriden" may not even be her real name!

She became acquainted with the dwarf twins Bailee and Bharnum during their tour of the pubhouses of the Sea of Fallen Stars and has been with them ever since.
